THE COLLECT FOR TODAY

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

These are the readings appointed for today

THE FIRST READING

Isaiah 40: 12 to 17, 27 to 31

Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand and marked off the heavens with a span, enclosed the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales and the hills in a balance? Who has directed the spirit of the Lord, or as his counsellor has instructed him? Whom did he consult for his enlightenment, and who taught him the path of justice? Who taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding? Even the nations are like a drop from a bucket, and are accounted as dust on the scales; see, he takes up the isles like fine dust. Lebanon would not provide fuel enough, nor are its animals enough for a burnt-offering. All the nations are as nothing before him; they are accounted by him as less than nothing and emptiness. Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, 'My way is hidden from the Lord, and my right is disregarded by my God'? Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless. Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted; but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

THE GOSPEL READING

Matthew 28: 16 to 20

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

ANNUAL GIVING

Thank you to everyone who has donated to our Annual Giving Campaign. We have now raised over £10,500 but there is still some way to go to reach our target of £20,000.

Please do consider donating if you are able before our deadline of 31 May, Trinity Sunday. We are looking to raise these funds to ensure we are able to keep our buildings in good order and also to improve them where possible. More details including how to donate are available on the attached leaflet. Please do consider giving carefully and prayerfully.

Donations can be made at any service by card (dedicated card machine for annual giving) or cash, direct to our bank account, by making a donation during the week in the Parish Office during normal opening hours, or via our website.

Thank you once again.

PCC Treasurer*

FOODBANK

Saint Matthew's Foodbank is still desperately short of donations. More and more people are turning to the Foodbanks for the first time, and yet the amount of donations has fallen.

If you are able to give anything at all, please leave your donation at the Vicarage or at the back of the Church. Please remember that no fresh food can be accepted and all tins and packets must be in date. More information can be found at: <https://www.redhillfoodbank.org.uk/shopping-list>

If anyone is able to join a rota to deliver the donations to St Matthew's Church, please let Alexia know. Donations can only be delivered there on Monday, Wednesday or Friday lunchtimes. With several people on the rota, it would only happen occasionally.

REGULAR GIVING TO ST MARK'S

If you are able to, please consider making a regular donation to St Mark's through the Parish Giving Scheme. This is the most effective way to donate as we receive 100% of your donation and Gift Aid is automatically claimed. Please follow the link below to sign up.
